

GEORGIA EMERGENCY COMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY

BRIAN P. KEMP
GOVERNOR

MICHAEL NIX
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

June 10, 2021

Frank O'Connell
Interim Commissioner
Georgia Department of Revenue
1800 Century Blvd NE
Atlanta, GA 30345

Commissioner O'Connell,

Pursuant to the Intergovernmental Agreement between the Georgia Emergency Communications Authority ("GECA") and the Georgia Department of Revenue ("DOR"), I hereby certify that the following city is now a member of GECA and is eligible to receive non-prepaid 911 and prepaid wireless 911 fee distributions.

- City of Dallas

Per O.C.G.A. § 46-5-134(k), a telephone subscriber may be billed for the monthly 911 charge or wireless enhanced 9-1-1 charge for up to 18 months in advance of the date on which the 911 system becomes fully operational. The City of Dallas has passed the necessary non-prepaid 911 and prepaid wireless 911 resolutions authorizing the charge in their city and is within 18 months of the enhanced 911 system becoming fully operational.

The list of cities and counties now eligible are:

- City of Acworth
- City of Alpharetta
- City of Atlanta
- City of Austell
- City of Brookhaven
- City of Chamblee
- City of College Park
- City of Conyers
- City of Dallas
- City of Decatur
- City of Doraville
- City of Dunwoody
- City of East Point
- City of Forest Park
- City of Hapeville

- City of Johns Creek
- City of Kennesaw
- City of Milton
- City of Mountain Park
- City of Powder Springs
- City of Roswell
- City of Sandy Springs
- City of Smyrna
